

request that the fcc maintain the current ban on ownership of newspapers and broadcast stations. We need many voices in order to hear the truth of what is happening in our communities and around the world.